The New Media Disruption: How News Consumption has Changed

by

Mr. M K Venu

Founding Editor of The Wire

M K Venu is partner and Founding Editor of The Wire (thewire.in), a non for profit multimedia internet platform for news and current affairs with extensive coverage of public policy and the political economy.

As an active economic and political journalist for over 30 years, MK Venu has been editor at major newspapers such as The Economic Times (ET), The Financial Express and The Hindu before setting up this venture. Besides closely tracking economic policies in New Delhi, and is regularly invited by Parliamentary Committees to give views on public policy matters. As Editor of The Financial Express he was invited by the RBI Governor for structured pre-monetary policy consultations, along with other industry representatives and economists, during the crucial years after the 2008 global financial crises.

His views on India's political economy are also sought on global media platforms such as BBC and Al Jazeera.
